Tabaree mentions the Jenn (Jinn) and says they were inhabitants of the Garden. The Gor'aan, chapter 2 mentions an expulsion:

goolnaa hbeṭoo menhaa jameeʿan
"We said, 'Get down from it, all together!" 2:38

The hadeeth tell us that some of the Jenn are dogs i.e. humanoid dogs. Ketaab al Fetaan has a long narration in which they are mentioned. They have human bodies but have dog heads.

Fetaan mentions those with the heads of dogs:
١٦٣٩ - والمغاشنين ورؤس الكلاب

Saint Christopher as a human or rather a dog:

Multiple narrations mention "al-Moqarreboon" i.e. those who are crossed with the Jenn.

"Among you are those who are expatriated (mugharrabûn);" and this, he explained, meant "crossed with jinn."
—Suyuti, Laqt al-marjân, 28

"The Hour will come when the children of jinn will become many among you."
—Suyuti, Laqt al-marjân, 38

Moqarreboon (dog hybrids):